First Trade Union Bank's Gary Lombardi Honored

Gary N. Lombardi, Senior Vice President and Market Manager of First Trade Union Bank's New York Division, was named "Man of the Year" by Transitional Services of New York for Long Island, Inc., and Haven House/Bridges, Inc. (TSLI/HHB). He received this honor recently at the 18th Annual Human Service Award Dinner. Mr. Lombardi has been a long time supporter of TSLI/HHB, having served on its President's Community Advisory Board for over two years. Mr. Lombardi is a resident of Brookhaven Hamlet, New York.

TSLI/HHB is a charitable organization that has provided housing and support services for over thirty years to people in need. Since its inception in 1977, TSLI has been helping the mentally ill gain their independence, enjoy caring guidance, and achieve and maintain a sense of usefulness and personal dignity. HHB's programs have provided housing, training, and guidance since 1986 to homeless families, single mothers and their young children, and individuals and families affected by HIV/AIDS.
